The village is host to many tourist opportunities such as the Arlington Park Racecourse, Metropolis Performing Arts Centre, Mitsuwa Japanese Marketplace, and Arlington Theaters. There are also challenging golf courses, municipal parks, and recreational facilities to make any visit fun and memorable for the entire family.

Arlington Heights has something for everyone to experience from shopping, dining, musicals, theater and movies to great hotel stays and recreational activities.

ARTS & CULTURE IN ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Arlington Heights offers many attractions to discover for those interested in the Arts and Culture including the Metropolis Performing Arts Centre, Arlington Heights Historical Museum, Arlington Heights Memorial Library, and Arlington Heights Theaters, among others.

Arlington Park Racecourse:

The Arlington Park Racecourse is a great place for summer entertainment for the whole family. The facility offers thoroughbred racing Wednesday through Sunday with approximately 90 race days per year. Arlington Park is home to the Arlington Million and the Breeder's Cup. In 2002, Arlington Park hosted a sold out crowd of 46,118 for the 2002 Breeders' Cup World Thoroughbred Championships, which came to the Midwest for the first time in its history. The Arlington Park Racecourse is located at 2200 W. Euclid Ave., Arlington Heights, IL 60005. Entrances on Euclid Avenue and Wilke Road. 847-385-7500 For more information visit www.arlingtonpark.com

Metropolis Performing Arts Centre:

The Metropolis Performing Arts Centre offers more than 50 productions each year ranging from musical theatre, plays, live jazz, vocal and symphonic music, dance, family shows, the Second City Comedy, and professional children's theatre. Visit www.metropolisarts.com for more information. The Metropolis Performing Arts Centre is located at 111 W. Campbell St., Arlington Heights, IL 60005; 847-577-2121.

Arlington Theaters:

This six-screen theater with easy-step stadium, seating, located in Arlington Town Square, offers residents family entertainment, a Cinema Café and plenty of parking in the underground garage. Parties are available for children of all ages. Visit www.arlingtontheater.com for more information. The Arlington Theaters is located at 53 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights, IL 60005; 847-483-0123.

Arlington Heights Historical Museum:

The Arlington Heights Historical Museum is a five-building complex, including a Coach House, Log Cabin, the 1882 home of F. W. Muller, and the 1908 Banta House. These buildings and their contents tell the story of Arlington Heights over the last 150 years. Tour guides introduce you to the life of early residents. Visit www.ahmuseum.org for more information. The Arlington Heights Historical Museum is located at 110 W. Fremont Street Arlington Heights, IL 60004; 847-255-1225.

Arlington Heights Memorial Library:

The Arlington Heights Memorial Library is a world class library facility. Approximately 66 percent of Arlington Heights residents possess a library card. The 132,000-square-foot facility provides over 450,000 items including 39,000 videos and DVD's and over 35,000 CD's and cassettes. The library loaned over 2,300,000 items in 2007. The facility has over 60 computers available in the library, with Internet access, paid information databases. Laptop computers are available at the Computer Desk for use throughout the library and free Wi-Fi is also available. Visit www.ahml.info for more information. The Arlington Heights Memorial Library is located at 500 N. Dunton Ave., Arlington Heights, IL 60004; 847-392-0100.

RECREATION & ENTERTAINMENT

Whatever the season, whatever your interest, Arlington Heights has something to offer. Arlington Heights is ready to provide our visitors and tourists with truly authentic experiences.

Choices for activities abound in this picturesque, vibrant community – whether it's watching a race at Arlington Park Racecourse or enjoying a day of golf at one of our challenging golf courses. Let this serve as your roadmap to having a great experience in Arlington Heights.

Take on the challenge of “Cosmic Bowling” at one of our bowling alleys, or try a game of laser tag! Check out the sights and sounds of a Japanese culture by visiting Mitsuwa Marketplace, or unwind and plan an escape to one of several great spas.

Enjoy a peaceful stroll along some of Arlington Heights walking trails, or test your paddle boat skills at Lake Arlington. Whether its wine tasting, taking in a play at Metropolis, swimming a couple of laps at the newly remodeled Olympic Pool, or playing an invigorating game of tennis at the indoor Heritage Tennis Club, Arlington Heights has something for every age and interest.

Arlington Heights has it all from picturesque neighborhoods and a vibrant downtown, to outdoor recreation and indoor recreation, stimulating cultural offerings, a local museum featuring great exhibits, distinctive restaurants and shops, and an endless spirit of fun!

LA TASCA

LE TITI DE PARIS

1015 W. Dundee Road
Arlington Heights, IL 60004
847-506-0222
www.letitideparis.com

This especially romantic restaurant has been an area favorite for over three decades. The menu here, courtesy of chef/co-owner chef Michael Maddox, takes classic French ideas and gives them contemporary spins. Wild game is a house specialty, as is a wine list assembled to enhance the often exotic menu -- so if you're not sure what goes best with New Zealand venison loin au poivre, don't worry. The dining room is warm and soothing, with abundant fresh flowers, a fireplace and--dare it be said--sultry lighting. Recipient of the “Four Diamond Award” AAA since 1991, DiRoNA (Distinguished Restaurants of North America) since 1992 and the Wine Spectator “Best of Award of Excellence.”

Discover Shopping

If you love shopping, you will want to discover Arlington Heights' primary shopping districts including Downtown, Uptown, and Southtown.

UPTOWN

Uptown Arlington Heights is centered at Rand, Palatine, and Arlington Heights roads and includes national retailers like Barnes & Noble, Best Buy, Burlington Coat Factory, Dick's Sporting Goods, Jo Ann Fabrics, Marshalls, Shoe Carnival, Trader Joe's, and Value City Furniture.

DOWNTOWN

Discover Downtown Arlington Heights where you will find national retailers along with one-of-a-kind boutiques, jewelry stores, galleries, and wine shops. Downtown Arlington Heights was voted "One of the Most Desirable Downtowns" in a Daily Herald newspaper survey. The Downtown Area boasts a diverse mix of restaurants, unique shops, quaint boutiques, theaters, and a performing arts center. You can shop along the tree-lined streets, check out the fountains and sculptures, before taking in a movie or a play and then dinner at the more than 40 restaurants.

SOUTHTOWN

The Southtown District offers national retailers and some of the finest restaurants along Algonquin and Golf roads. Get everything you need for your home at Lowe's and then check out Mitsuwa the largest Japanese marketplace in the Midwest for unique food and gift items, including the freshest sushi in the Northwest suburbs.
